

SECOND PLACE:
Clean Care/Mobil 1
Lube Express
 Cookeville, Tennessee

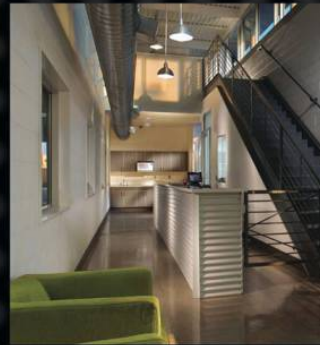

Sleek, modern and futuristic were only a few of the words our judges used to describe this great facility.

"Wow! Love the futuristic styling," one judge said. "Looks and feels high-tech; like they'd really know what they were doing."

"Are you sure someone didn't submit an entry for a house in Malibu?," asked one young judge.

Other judges liked the minimalist look inside the facility.

"The waiting room is very trendy with a lofty feel," one judge said.

THIRD PLACE:
Jackson Hole
Express Lube
 Jackson Hole, Wyoming

This entry oozes the rustic feel of a log cabin.

"Love the wood shake siding and rough-hewn columns," one judge noted. "Very rustic feel, perfect for the locale."

Several judges liked the wood that carried throughout this shop. Judges were impressed that the waiting room, sporting its knotty pine counter, still felt like a log cabin.

"The benches outside would be wonderful for waiting in the summertime," one judge said.

Judges also were impressed by the cleanliness of this facility.
